

Contents

	Page
Foreword	Robert Simpson 9
Editor-Translator's Introduction	Paul Rapoport 11
A Note on the Essays in this Book	11
A Note on Vagn Holmboe and his Music	15
Acknowledgements	30
Music - The Inexplicable	31
Prelude	33
Music as Part of our Culture	33
The Musical Phenomenon	35
First Movement: The Composer	37
Unconscious and Conscious States	37
Work and Crises	41
The Lives of Motives	42
Musical Ideas and their Origins	44
Working to Commission	49
Musical Thinking	51
Dreams	52
Nature	54
Working Conditions	55
The Unconscious, Inspirational and Intellectual Processes	56
Second Movement: The Performer	61
One's Own Music	61
The Performance of Music	62
Interpretation and Re-creation	65

	Page
Third Movement: The Listener	67
The Effects of Music	67
Quotations about Music	67
Comprehension of Music	69
Muzak and Entertainment	71
The Specialised Background	73
The Emotional Stimulus	74
Experimental Music	74
Snobbery	79
Folk Music	80
Fourth Movement: The Inexplicable	83
Myth and the Experience of Ecstasy and Magic	83
Memory and Recognition	90
Postlude	95
Quality and Substance	95
The Musical Experience	99
The Ideal Listener	103
The Inexplicable in Music	104
Other Essays	107
Epilogue (from the book Interlude )	109
On the Experiencing of Time (from the book Interlude )	112
Stravinsky's Symphony of Psalms	117
In Memory of Carl Nielsen	122
Haydn and Tradition	125
A Little String Trio	128
Human Responsibility and Artistic Freedom	133
Select Bibliography	137
Index	139