

Contents

	Page
Introduction	9
Acknowledgements	12
I Musical Life in Kristiania around 1910	15
II First Years	22
III Early Songs, Early Success	50
Fabler og barnerim	73
Rosenstaden	77
Violin Sonata in B flat major	82
Tema con variazioni	86
Piano Quintet	102
IV Modernism and Norwegian Musical Nationalism between the Wars	106
V The Passacaglia	113
VI Heimferd	138
VII The 1930s	170
Der Gott und die Bayadere	178
Kong Baldvines armring	181
Driftekaren	183
Partita sinfonica	187
Barnebilleder and other songs	196
VIII The War Years	203
Symphony in D minor	216
Rondo marziale	222
Operatic Projects	227
IX The First Years after the War	229
X The 1950s	240
Japanischer Frühling	247
XI The Later Years	254
XII Irgens-Jensen as a Person	261
XIII Irgens-Jensen's View of Music and his Musical Style Musical Style	272 283

Appendices
1	List of Works	294
2	Irgens-Jensen as Poet	323
Bibliography and Other Sources		335
Discography		341
Index of Irgens-Jensen's Music		345
General Index		349
Contents of the CD		365

List of Illustrations

	Page
A photographic portrait of Irgens-Jensen from around 1920	2
The reindeer trade mark of Jensen & Co	23
Irgens-Jensen at the age of two-and-a-half	25
The Irgens-Jensen family in 1907	27
Pencil sketch for a self-portrait, from 1912 or 1913	28
Irgens-Jensen with his family in 1913	30
A brief moment of relaxation from his studies	33
Irgens-Jensen and a classmate celebrate a climb on Kolsås	35
The nineteen-year-old Ludvig climbing in Jotunheim	36
Irgens-Jensen's drawings of his sister Dagny, from c. 1916	41
A self-portrait from 1917	42
Odd and Finn Grüner-Hegge	47
The programme from Irgens-Jensen's debut concert as composer	60
Irgens-Jensen's passport, issued in 1922	67
Hans E. Kinck around 1920	71
Elisabeth Munthe-Kaas in the 1920s	74
Arnulf Øverland in the 1920s	81
Irgens-Jensen, Elling Bang and Odd Grüner-Hegge in the 1920s	82
Knudåge Riisager	87
Monrad Johansen, Grüner-Hegge and Irgens-Jensen in Copenhagen	99
Louise Irgens-Jensen (née Ravn Christophersen) in 1926	101
Ludvig, Louise and Olav Irgens-Jensen in 1929	103
Pauline Hall, around 1940	128
Issay Dobrowen around 1930	133
Olav Gullvåg	139
Orchestra of the Oslo Philharmonic Society in the Aula	168
Irgens-Jensen, Christian Sinding and Odd Grüner-Hegge in the early 1930s	173
Stravinsky on a visit to Norway in 1931	176
Irgens-Jensen with his father and son in the mid-1930s	181
Alfred Maurstad as Vrål in Driftekaren	186
The manuscript of Altar	201
Irgens-Jensen portrayed by Gøsta Hammarlund	209

The manuscript of Ei malmfuru	213
Til de unge	215
Irgens-Jensen at the end of the 1940s	217
Irgens-Jensen drawn in musical signs by Axel Haugen	230
At a reception for Klaus Egge's 50th birthday	235
The 1947 staging of Heimferd	239
The opening of the new Oslo Town Hall sketched by Øyvind Sørensen	241
Øivin Fjeldstad	245
Karl Andersen, Irgens-Jensen and Sæverud by Pedro	246
Irgens-Jensen photographed by Aftenposten	257
Irgens-Jensen's grave-stone	258
A page from one of Irgens-Jensen's sketchbooks, c. 1915	264
Irgens-Jensen climbing in West Jotunheim	269
The view from Irgens-Jensen's home at Nordstrand: a water-colour	270
Kjeld Rasmussen's 1968 bust of Irgens-Jensen	291